Change in Government That Has Gone Into Effect is the Cause

STAMP TAX IS REDUCED

One Half From What It Was Under Huerta's Administration—Revolution of Infantry Regiment is Quickly Quelled—Priests Report Indignities in Mexico.

Mexico City, Aug. 22.—Four hundred and eighty diplomatic representatives of Mexico are without positions today because of the change of government. These include Ricardo Huerta, in charge of the archives of the Mexican embassy at Washington, the minister to Germany and his staff, the ministers to Argentina and Austria-Hungary and many consuls.

Fernando Iglesias Calderon, who has been acting as agent for General Carranza in Washington, has been recalled to take charge of the foreign office.

The stamp tax has been reduced 50 per cent from what it was under the Huerta administration. The war office last night announced that the revolt of the 29th infantry at Puebla had been quelled and the command disbanded. General Gonzales Laque and his officers are now under arrest there.

PRIESTS RELAY OF INDIGNITIES.

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 22.—A party of thirty five Roman Catholic priests who arrived here last night, told a story of indignities to which they claimed Mexicans at Queretaro, Mex., had subjected them. They said they were forced to submit to various insults and physical indignities.

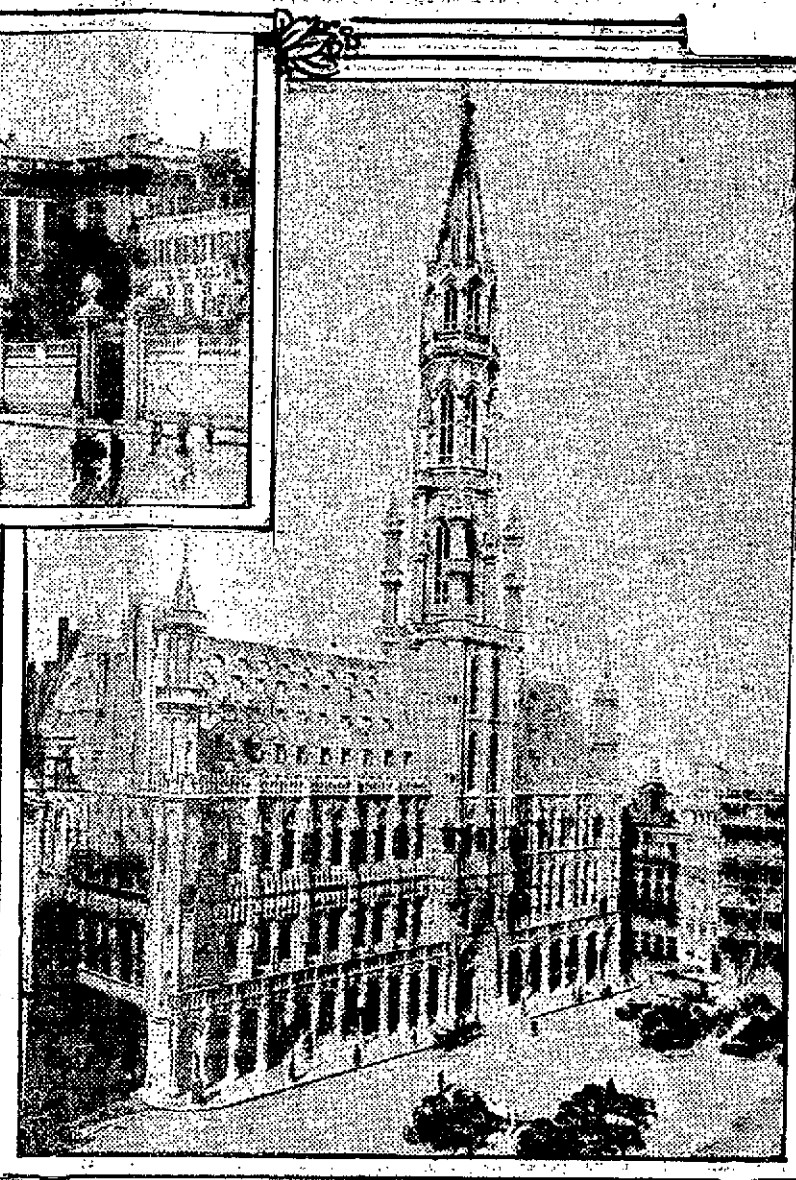

TAX LEVY FOR CITY PURPOSES TO BE REDUCED

City officials conferred with the county tax budget commission Friday regarding the levy necessary for the city, as based upon the estimated expenses of the various departments for next year. The original sums asked for would have made a levy of 14.60 mills. It had been reduced to 14.47 mills previous to the conference and this resulted in a further reduction of 47 mills, making the levy as it now stands 14 mills even. This is still subject to further change. The levy last year was 13 mills.

Japanese Charge d'Affaires Ordered Leave the German Capital Tomorrow

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Aug. 22.—The Japanese government today instructed its charge d'affaires in Berlin to leave there at 4 a. m. tomorrow, Berlin time. If answer was not returned then by Germany to the Japanese ultimatum.

Baron Chinda said that the Japanese charge d'affaires at Berlin would wait for an answer until 4 a. m. and that if no communication was received he was to ask for his passports, place the interests of Japan in Germany in the hands of the United States and leave at once.

JAPANESE BEGIN ARMY AND NAVY MOVEMENTS

Shanghai, China, Aug. 22.—According to information obtained today from an official but not Japanese source, the tenth division of the Japanese army, consisting of 16,000 men, went on board transports at Kooka last Friday. Furthermore a Japanese battleship fleet, including the superdreadnaught Kongou has sailed to bombard Sing Tau, the seaport of Kiao Chow, and cover the landing of the first Japanese forces of occupation.

The second Japanese cruiser squadron from Port Arthur is patrolling between Korea and the Island of Formosa. A British cruiser from Hong Kong passed here today going north.

LITTLE TIME FOR GERMAN ANSWER TO ULTIMATUM

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Aug. 22.—Germany's answer to the ultimatum of Japan is awaited with absorbing interest in official and diplomatic quarters as only a few hours remain for the time limit of the ultimatum. While Japan's note specified "noon on August 23" as the time limit, yet the difference of 14 hours time between Tokyo and here makes noon tomorrow in Tokyo about 10 p. m. tonight, eastern time, in the United States. For this reason it is believed that a reply—if one is to be made—must now be enroute, as the delayed cable communication around the world would require many hours to ensure an answer getting through in the short time still remaining.

It is considered practically certain by officials that Germany will not comply with the demand and that Japan's action will be immediate operations against Kiao-Chow.

INDEMNITY

DEMANDED OF BRUSSELS BY GERMANY, SUBJECT OF WASHINGTON DISCUSSION.

Practice of Imposing Tribute Upon Conquered Communities Not Now Common.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Aug. 22.—Until the exact conditions are known under which a $40,000,000 war tax is to be levied upon Brussels by its German captors, it is not regarded as possible by the international law experts here to pass finally upon the legality of that method of warfare. The practice of levying such taxes upon conquered communities, which was quite common in most wars up to and including the Napoleonic era, has since that time fallen into desuetude, and no trace of such exactions are to be found in the history of the civil war in America, the Russo-Japanese war, the Franco-Prussian war, or the Russo-Japanese wars. But it is recalled that in the Napoleonic wars against the allies of Europe, Napoleon imposed forced indemnities on the Italian provinces and also on the Pope. He also enriched the Louvre, by taking the choicest treasures from the art galleries of cities overrun.

The Hague conference at its second meeting showed distinct opposition to such collections but when it came to reducing that sentiment to the form of treaties, the subject was treated rather vaguely and mainly with the purpose of safeguarding individual property. Generally, it appeared that there was no prohibition in terms upon local or municipal governments as in the case of the indemnity exacted from national governments at the end of hostilities.

INFERNAL FIRE MADE RETREAT REAL TRAGEDY

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Rome, via Paris, Aug. 22.—11:30 a. m.—The Tribuna today published a telegram from a correspondent at the front who says that the German retreat from Muelhausen under the infernal fire of the French artillery became a tragedy. It was impossible for the Germans to see whence this fire came.

GERMAN ENTRY INTO BRUSSELS TOLD BRIEFLY

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Berlin, via Copenhagen and London, Aug. 22.—8:45 A. M.—A laconic dispatch of seven words announcing the entry of the Germans into Brussels is the only news regarding the occupation of the Belgian capital yet published here. The military authorities are contenting themselves with a brevity of announcement surpassing that said to have been employed by the late Field Marshal von Moltke.

The Berlin papers express admiration for the swiftness of the German advance but make no comment on the German tactics.

DECREASE SHOWN IN STATEMENT OF CLEARING HOUSE

(Associated Press Telegram.)
New York, Aug. 22.—The statement of the average condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that the cash reserve decreased $5,272,350, leaving a deficit of $42,719,900 below the legal requirements.

BELGIAN OFFICERS WERE MANACLED TO HORSES' STIRRUPS.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Paris, Aug. 22.—A local paper describing the entry of the Germans into Brussels says a feature of the maneuver was the presence with the German forces of a hundred automobiles filled with machine guns.

Another story published here is to the effect that two Belgian officers, manacled to the stirrups of horses, were obliged in this manner to accompany the cortege through the city.

Austrians Lose Many Guns and Booty Which They Were Compelled to Abandon.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
London, Aug. 22.—In a dispatch from St. Petersburg, the correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company, says that the Russian advance, both on Austria and Germany, is progressing without interruption.

A big cavalry engagement of the northern army on Friday was a severe blow to the Germans in east Prussia. An entire German battery was captured. Aviators are throwing bombs on the German entrenchments and military buildings.

The Austrian army corps is engaged in the Austro-Servian theater of war. They are wedged in the junction of the Drina and Yadal rivers. In a battle of four days' duration the Servians captured sixty Austrian guns.

FIGHTING CONTINUOUS ALONG ENTIRE FRONT; EXPECT BIG BATTLE.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Nish, Servia, Aug. 22.—There has been continuous fighting along the whole frontier for two days, without any change in the respective positions of the Austrian and Servian armies. It is officially stated that a part of the Servian army has invaded Bosnia successfully and that a great battle, with an outcome favorable to the Servians is expected.

QUAKE SHOCK WAS REGISTERED AT WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Germans Bombarding Forts of Namur and Are Moving Westward

Operations Are Being Conducted on an Enormous Scale and Encounters Thus Far Are of Minor Importance to the Ultimate Result

GALLANT DEFENDER OF LIEGE IS NOW PRISONER OF WAR

Servians Are Reported As Having Given Their Overwhelming Foes Several Severe Defeats—It is Now Inevitable That the Kaiser's Forces Will Soon Have to Meet the Allies and the Crucial Test Will Then Be at Hand.

The German advance into Belgium is going on today, apparently without serious check. Having taken Brussels the troops of Emperor William are forcing their way steadily and rapidly to the north and west.

They have occupied Ghent, and are approaching Bruges and Ostend. They would appear to be endeavoring to overrun the whole northern and western Belgium. At the same time they would seem to be drawing closer to the French frontier.

Southeast of Brussels they are investing the fortified city of Namur on the Meuse.

It is reported from Antwerp that the Germans will not continue to occupy Brussels, contenting themselves merely with marching through the city. This determination, however, may be altered by the attitude of the city treasurer of Brussels, who is quoted as saying he will never pay the $40,000,000 demanded by the Germans as a war tax.

The concentration of the Belgian army before Antwerp is said to have been accomplished in good order, and the moral of the Belgian troops is reported to be unimpaired. While German patrols have close to Antwerp, no strong detachments have been reported yet near the city. Whether or not the Germans will attempt to capture Antwerp, or simply invest it, is not yet clear.

A Paris newspaper declares today that general mobilization in Italy has been decided upon and will be proclaimed in three or four days.

St. Petersburg announces officially that the Russian army is advancing along the entire Austro-German frontier and at the same time successfully maintaining the offensive at every point of contact with the enemy.

A reported cavalry engagement of the northern Russian army last Friday is described as a severe blow to the Germans in east Prussia. It is said an entire German battery was captured in this engagement. Russian aviators throwing bombs on the German entrenchments.

Further accounts of the reported Servian victory over the Austrians say the fighting lasted three days' along the Drina river. The Austrian casualties were given as between 20,000 and 25,000 while it is said, ten thousand prisoners were taken. The Servian artillery did effective work against the enemy. Nish declares officially that a part of the Servian army has invaded Bosnia and that another great battle is expected in the near future.

The time limit of the Japanese ultimatum to Germany, demanding the surrender of the German holdings at Kiao Chow, expires tomorrow and Japan is described as fully ready to proceed against the German position.

A despatch from Tokio says that the German ambassador to Japan will sail for Seattle Aug. 26, and that a number of German officials have already left Tokio.

The news of the German occupation of Brussels has been posted in Berlin. The story was told in a La-tonia despatch of seven words. The American ambassador in Berlin has published a denial of reports that Americans have been ill treated in Germany. He declares that today they enjoy as much security in Germany as in America.

WISHART IS KILLED IN AUTO RACE

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Elgin, Ill., Aug. 22.—Spencer Wishart, died this afternoon of injuries received when the car he was driving in the Elgin National Road race crashed into a fence and overturned.

Three spectators were reported slightly hurt when Wishart's car hit the fence near which were their seats.

Andrew Vollman, Wishart's mechanic also was injured. The car turned turtle at station No. 3, and both men were pinned under it. Wishart was in the lead at the time of the accident.

Both of Wishart's legs were broken and he was internally injured. Wishart was averaging close to 75 miles an hour.

Americans Now in Europe May Get Money Deposited For Them in This Country

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Aug. 22.—Administration officials directing operation of the hastily constructed government machinery for the relief of Americans caught in the European war zone, believed today that the end of their task was in sight. Dispatches from J. L. Wilmet, treasury department representative work abroad stated that the situation is now well in hand.

Arrangements practically were completed today by the relief board to pay to Americans in England all the money deposited to their credit with the government departments. The Bank of England will make payments in gold to Americans with necessary credentials. The relief board will deposit gold to cover those payments at the English bank's Canada branch. About $1,500,000 has been deposited with the government for war refugees. Sums not yet transferred will quickly be paid.

Destitute Americans reaching New York from Europe will be helped by a special fund which will be deposited with the assistant U. S. treasurer.

That the refugees are finding means of exit to ports where they may board steamers for home was indicated in reports to the relief board today. Americans in Switzerland will be helped to seaports in France by the French government, whence they may reach England. Refugees in Germany are making their way to England by way of Holland.

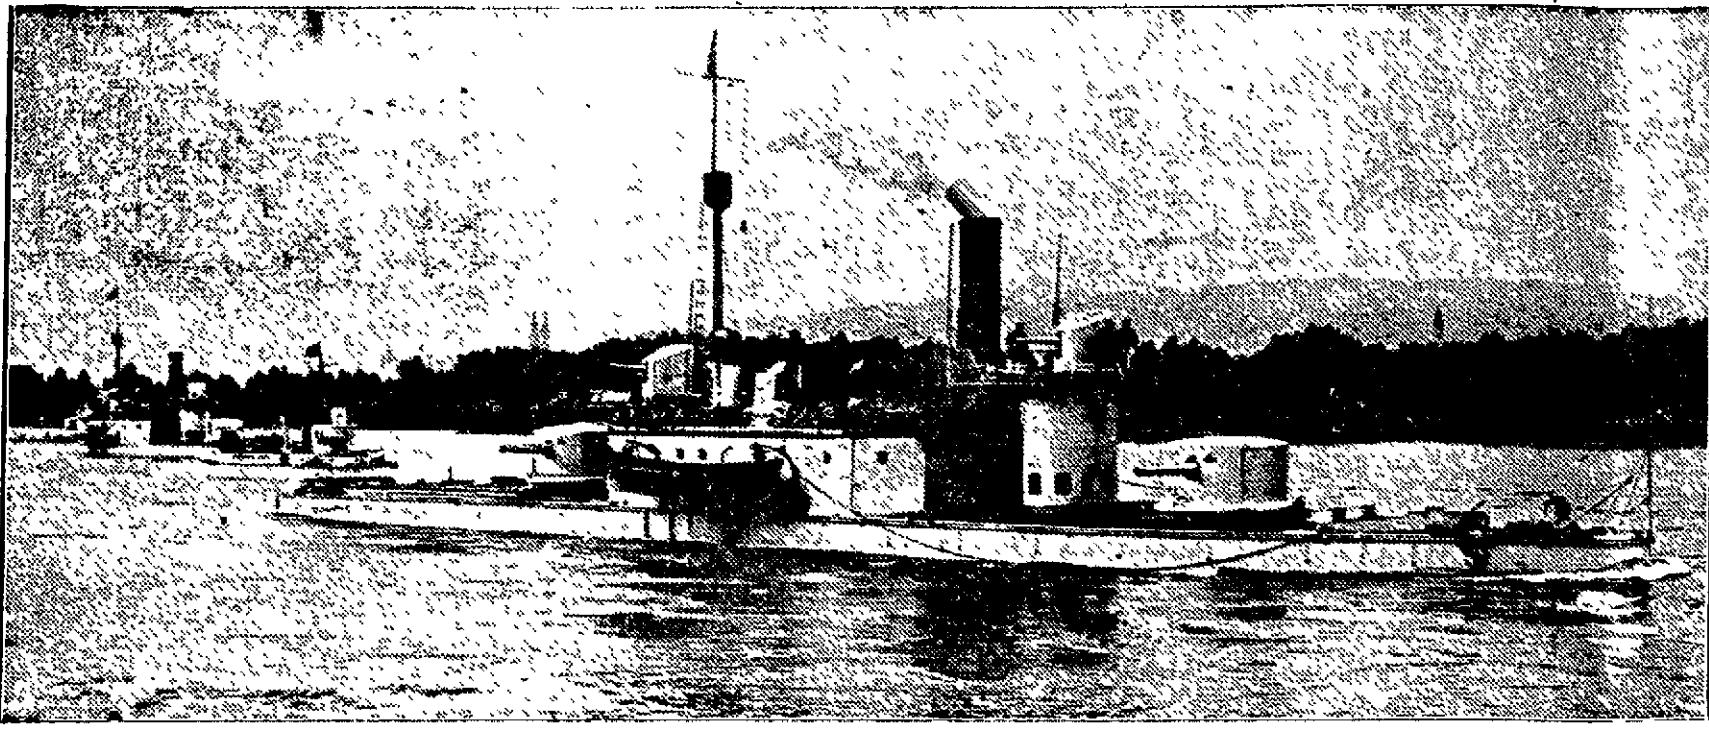

Could Not Break Papal Ring Even With Hammer, So Curtail Ancient Rite

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Rome, Aug. 22.—Twenty-three cardinals met late yesterday in the first congregation of cardinals to arrange the temporary government of the church and prepare for the conclave in September, when a successor to Pope Pius X will be elected.

Cardinals Martelli and di Pietro are ill and for that reason were unable to be present. Cardinal Serafini Vannelli, dean of the sacred college attended but being incapacitated by an indisposition, the duties of the dean were performed by Cardinal Agliardi.

After taking the oath to maintain secret their discussions "even to the shedding of blood," the cardinals performed the traditional ceremony of breaking the fisherman's ring. The rite, however, was not literally carried out. According to the rules of the college the ring should be broken and later reset and presented to the new pope. Friday after each of the members present had identified the ring, it was found that none had the strength to break it, even though a hammer was employed. Aid was not at hand as Cardinal Dell Voipe

Austrian Gunboats In the Danube Which Have Been Shelling Belgrade.

These are the Austrian gunboats, which at the outbreak of the war between Serbia and Austria, it was said, would sweep Belgrade and clear the Servians entirely from the banks of the Danube. But the boats have been shelling Serbian cities for several days except when they were driven away by the Serbian armies, and at the last report they had not made much impression.

The Austrian government has six of these boats on the river. They are of a sort of monitor type, and would be of little use in a war where great ocean battleships were to be encountered. But it was believed by the Austrians they would be of great value in a war with Serbia, Bulgaria or Roumania.

London, Aug. 22.—2:45 p. m.—With the Germans bombarding the forts of Namur and large bodies of their troops continuing to move westward a contact must soon be joined with the main allied forces. The German army will then for the first time find itself facing its chief opponents and a great battle which must have an enormous effect on the future of war will, probably, ebb and flow for several days before a decision is reached.

The front of the German fighting line may extend far to the westward if the suggestion is well founded that the right wing of the emperor's battalions is carrying out a great circling movement with a view of breaking into France further to the south.

According to French official reports, victories gained by the French troops have opened the way to Colmar, capital of Upper Alsace.

Seven thousand Austrians are reported to have arrived at Strassburg for the defense of that fortress.

Both Germany and Austria-Hungary have called the Landsturm, their last reserve of troops, to the colors.

If the news of the great Serbian victory, which comes from many sources be true, Austria-Hungary which must be reeling under the smashing blow delivered by her small adversary, will need every available man.

The Russian army on the eastern frontier of Germany gradually is emerging from the mist and in such force as will soon demand more attention.

The official press bureau this afternoon issued a warning to the public to bear in mind that for practical purposes almost all information, official or unofficial concerning the progress of the land operations comes at present from the side of the allies.

The official statement continues: "Very little news filters in from Germany and Austria by the channels of neutral countries, but sufficient does filter through to indicate that the enemy claims successes in various quarters both in the western and eastern theatres of the war."

"It should furthermore be remembered that these campaigns have been carried out on an enormous scale and that a majority of the encounters which already have taken place can only in their due perspective be classed as incidents of minor importance."

"No achievement on either side deserves to be called a victory. The French have gained gratifying successes in Alsace and the Germans by a steady pressure have obliged a large portion of the Belgian field army to retire on Antwerp."

"In the eastern theatre there have been a number of affairs in which our allies are believed to have gained ground, but the campaign in that quarter can scarcely be said to have commenced. The exaggeration into important triumphs of minor episodes in which the allied forces are alleged to have gained the upper hand is misleading."

"This, however may be said: In the western theatre of the war—that in which this country is most interested—one real noteworthy success has been gained, although it should perhaps, be called a German failure rather than an allied success."

"At the end of three weeks the enemy has not yet attempted to deliver an attack, which had it taken place and proved even partially successful a week ago, might conceivably have interfered with the concentration of the French army and might have

London, Aug. 22.—12:30 P. M.—The correspondent at Amsterdam gives the following account of the present situation at Liege:

"The firing of a shot from a private house on the Quai des Pecheurs in Liege yesterday was the signal for widespread bombardment and arson on the part of the German army of occupation."
"Immediately the shot was fired, the Germans opened up with their machine guns, destroying twenty houses and killed the inmates of ten other houses. In addition to the war tribute of $10,000,000 levied upon the province, the city of Liege has been mulcted of an additional $2,000,000, the German army administration having seized this amount of cash in private banks."

GERMAN SHIP, COAL LADEN, LEAVES PORT

(Associated Press Telegram)

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Loaded to the limit with coal and food supplies the North German Lloyd ship Brandenburg is steaming down the Delaware river bound for Bergen, Norway. This is the destination given in the clearance papers and the captain says the journey will require about two months.

Despite the protests of the British Ambassador in Washington, who declared that the Brandenburg is an auxiliary cruiser of the German navy, local custom authorities gave her name as it appears. Naval men believe the vessel may proceed slowly down the Delaware river and when she reaches the Atlantic ocean, 100 miles away, hug the three mile limit until a favorable opportunity presents itself for a dash seaward. The Brandenburg is slow and her only chance for safety lies in protection by German cruisers.

When the Brandenburg sailed her appearance was changed so that old sailors failed to recognize her as the same vessel.

Lodges

I. O. O. F. Newark Lodge No. 623. Newark Lodge held its regular meeting last Monday evening with a good attendance. The third degree was conferred. There is a great deal of interest being taken in the meeting for next Monday evening, Aug. 24. We want every Odd Fellow to be on hand at this gathering and bring a friend along. Lodge will open promptly at 7:30 for a short business session. The social session will be given at 8:15. The committee has arranged for a few talks from prominent men of the order after which we will have light refreshments. Brothers, we want you to be sure to meet with us and have a prospective member with you.

K. OF P. Newark Lodge, No. 13. Last Thursday night about 70 members of number 13 and several visiting members from No. 305 were present when the lodge was called to order. They had come in response to a notice sent them stating that plans and specifications of the proposed Pythian Castle would be on hand for their inspection. After taking over the plans submitted for building and also the plans for financing, the lodge voted unanimously to turn over to The Pythian Castle Co. what available funds were on hand at this time so that the work could begin at once upon excavating and building the foundation and a contract made for the erection of the building, Roland Lodge having voted favorably on the proposition last Thursday night.

The directors of The Pythian Castle Co. are: B. L. Montgomery, J. A. Grove and E. L. Schnadt from Newark Lodge and Wm. M. Morgan, Harry Rexwith and C. J. Graet from Roland Lodge.

J. S. Woodward, J. E. Gratter and S. H. Beadle were named by the Chancellor-Commander as a committee on finance to confer with a like committee from Roland Lodge. These men will have charge of the funds of the lodges appropriated for building purposes.

The lot to be built upon has been owned by the two K. of P. lodges for several years and is on East Main street, the house now standing on the lot being no 102 and is opposite the Sherwood hotel. Many different times in the past, plans to build a Pythian Castle have been considered by the lodges but this failed to materialize but at last our hopes are to be realized and a general feeling of satisfaction is evident among the members for it means more perhaps to the future of Pythianism than anything ever undertaken by the Lodges in this County.

Brother George W. Gonder from Nebraska Lodge, No. 1, Omaha, Neb., and Brother J. J. Sopp, Grandview Lodge, No. 303, McKeesport, Pa., were visiting the lodge and made excellent addresses.

One application was balloted upon and the applicant elected to membership.

Next Sunday night the two K. of P. lodges will attend religious services at the U. B. church on East Main street. Rev. Cox, the pastor is a member of the order. Members will meet at the hall at 7:00 o'clock and go in a body to the church.

Roland Lodge. Last Tuesday night's meeting was largely attended and local Pythian history was made. Members of the Pythian Castle company were present with plans and specifications of the proposed new Pythian Temple on East Main street, with estimated cost, etc. Bro. W. M. Morgan presented the situation in a clear and concise manner and answered many questions. It was finally decided to authorize our trustees to turn over the available funds of the lodge to the building committee that they could proceed with the erection of the building at once, provided Newark Lodge, No. 13, took a similar action, which they did Thursday evening. A committee of three, consisting of Trustees Pfeiffer, Hawkins and Baker, was appointed to act in conjunction with a like committee from our sister lodge as an advisory board to the building committee regarding finances, etc. Everyone present was heartily in favor of the project and voted unanimously on the action taken. It surely begins to look as if we will soon see the culmination of many efforts to build a hall that will be large enough to accommodate the needs of the rapidly growing order. The site 102 East Main street, is just a few doors east of First street and is about 96x200 feet.

It was also decided at this meeting to attend divine services at the U. B. church on East Main street tomorrow, Sunday, August 23, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. B. Cox, pastor of this church, is a brother Knight and at this time as he leaves for conference in a couple of weeks and will be subject to the powers that be and may be sent elsewhere. It is the earnest wish of his friends in and out of the church that he will be returned. He has never refused to help the Knights of Pythias when called upon and we should at least return the courtesy by turning out in large numbers tomorrow night. Leave the hall at 7:10 sharp.

Helpfulness Is Productive of Happiness!

It has been demonstrated, over and over again, that it is for man's best interest to observe a day of rest; he needs it for relaxation from the cares of the week and for refreshment for the labor of the week to come.

In the Bible we are exhorted not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together.

Moreover we are urged repeatedly to worship the Lord in His courts; "Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving," "I was glad when they said to me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

"The Sabbath was made for man; not man for the Sabbath."

"A Sabbath well spent brings a week of content"; that is a Sabbath spent in the proper way—and that includes, of necessity, church attendance—prepares us for what we have to do during the coming week.

Many of the most useful people of the world have been church goers; believing in the services and profiting physically, mentally and spiritually by them.

The captains of big things find in church services rest and change, refreshment and uplift; and the new duties to be confronted during the week are easier because of the rest of the Sabbath day.

Every great man owes what he is to his spiritual attitude.

His nature inclines to service to God; to helpfulness to his fellowmen; to being more human and humane in his attitude towards life, and to being and doing that which will benefit others as well as to benefiting himself.

Church services therefore are essential to big and little; to the physically strong as well as to the physically weak; the word appeals to the mentally strong and the mentally weak; the essence of religion is uplift of soul and spirit; the increase of understanding of the laws of God and man; the betterment of the world in general.

No church has all the workers it needs; no congregation is so efficiently organized as to be beyond the need of more helpers.

There is a niche in the moral life of the community in which you will just fit; where you can do what you desire for the uplift of those about you.

The churches of this community therefore want your interest in the services of Sunday, your help in the work the church is doing week after week and month after month. They need you! Will you help?

Red Cross Society Celebrates Half Centennial Anniversary

Just half a century ago today the representatives of twelve great nations, assembled in Geneva, Switzerland, signed a convention which brought into existence one of the greatest humanitarian agencies the world has ever known—the Red Cross society. This international association for the relief of the wounded and sick in time of war was inspired by a book, "Un Souvenir de Solferino," written by a Swiss gentleman, Henri Dunant. He had witnessed the horrors of the battle of Solferino in 1859, and his book made such a profound impression that in 1863 there was a meeting of delegates from fourteen nations to consider a plan for the formation of a relief society. Great Britain, France, Russia, Prussia, Italy and Austria were represented, and it was agreed that another meeting should be held in 1864 to complete the organization. The congress was convened in Geneva early in August, and on the twenty-second of the month an international code received the signatures of twelve delegates. The soldiers of mercy enlisted under the Red Cross received their baptism of fire in the war between France and Germany in 1870 when the flag of the society was recognized as neutral.

For many years the United States held aloof from the movement, but in 1882, through the efforts of Clara Barton, the Washington government became a party to the treaty. The American Red Cross has performed wonders in the amelioration of suffering, not only in war, but in pestilence, famine, flood and fire. In 1905 it was re-organized on a broader basis, with William H. Taft, then secretary of war, as its president.

The insignia of the society, a red cross on a white background, was chosen as a compliment to the Swiss government, whose flag is a white cross on a red ground. The society is given the privilege of neutrals, and all patients under its care are treated alike.

The original treaty of half a century ago insured to the Red Cross the protection of all conflicting forces in time of war, and covered all suffering caused by war. The treaty provided that the hospital flag of every nation be that of the society, although Turkey was permitted to adopt the red crescent as its emblem. By the articles of the treaty, a sick or wounded soldier is a "neutral case."

In a recent Red Cross bulletin the duties of the Red Cross in war were thus set forth: "The duties of the Red Cross would have to do with the sick and wounded and the prisoners of war. Each unit or army would have its separate headquarters established at some convenient point far in the rear of the actual fighting. The soldiers having been wounded in battle or taken sick in camp far from headquarters would receive first attention in portable field hospitals, which would be moved about as the armies themselves moved, and which would be set up as near as practicable to the actual scene of fighting."

"When the sick and wounded soldiers had been given first attention and preliminary care in the field hospitals they would be transported by rail or in ambulance trains back to the large base hospitals at the army headquarters. The Red Cross would be expected to have men, necessary ambulances, mule teams, &c., for the transportation of the sick and wounded soldiers from the field hospitals to the base hospitals. The Red Cross would also be expected to provide such surgeons, nurses, clerical force, and domestic help at the base hospitals as might be called for by the army authorities."

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. "Love's Old Sweet Song"

Music is more than mere entertainment. It begets culture and refinement and builds character. It makes life sweeter. It awakens the very depths of love, sympathy and harmony. While seated in the twilight, the soft strains of the piano carry you off to other realms, where you forget the world and its cares and are wrapped in the thoughts and emotions which sentimental music brings—

"Just a song at twilight,
When the lights are low,
And the flickering shadows
Softly come and go."

You may think these finer emotions make little difference to you and your children, but in the long run, if you have experienced them once, you will then fully realize that something very important has been lacking in your home and in your life.

Up to the Voters

For six long years the looters have been away from the vaults of the Ohio state treasury. Can Ohio afford to risk their return by electing to office the men who acquiesced in previous political canvasses in the efforts of discredited leaders to hold this bit of swag? Here is one of the big questions of the contest in Ohio.

For the years that the Ohio Board of Administration has been in office contracts for supplying the institutions of the state has been on a competitive basis, insuring better goods at lower prices and making for a saving of near a million dollars in two years. Can Ohio afford to turn back into office the representatives of the old system of graft and favoritism?

Under the system of workmen's compensation, which the opposition is already preparing to emasculate, the toilers injured while serving in great industrial army of peace, need worry no longer about food and clothing for family and payment for physicians. All these things are being attended to by state agency and manufacturers are warmest in praise of the system. Can Ohio afford to retrace its steps into the mire of the liability insurance business?

Today all classes of property are being appraised upon a fair and uniform basis and no longer is the "unifor rule of taxation" in the Ohio constitution a joke. The spirit and letter of the law are being enforced.

Can Ohio afford to slip back?

Our Neutral Newspapers

Bitter complaint is made that American newspapers are presenting one-sided reports of the war. If that is true, it is simply because the other side, for good reasons of its own, is suppressing the news.

There is no characteristic in which American newspapers shine more brightly than their disposition to print all of the news. Years ago, partisan journals would print only reports of the campaign of their own political party. Now there is a recognition that the public wants the whole story, and can be trusted to judge for itself. A newspaper that refused to admit opinions contrary to its own view would be con-

Who Pays for War?

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

When France surrendered to Prussia in January, 1871, after a short year of war, and peace was declared May 10, 1871, after a conference at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, it was agreed that Prussia, which then included the German States by the proclamation of the German Empire made at Versailles, should take over the territory of Alsace, German Lorraine and Metz, and France pay an indemnity of 5,000,000,000 francs, or $1,000,000,000. With extraordinary celerity the French people paid this heavy penalty of defeat, and Germany at once piled the $1,000,000,000 in gold in a tower of the castle of Spandau as a war fund, and it is now being used to prosecute a new war against France.

What compensation was that huge pile of gold, that blood money, won in the acquisition of Alsace, Lorraine and Metz, to the people of the new German empire? Of course, those who were left alive shouted "Long live the Kaiser," and psalms of victory were heard in the parks and streets and churches, but the dead were not brought to life, widows were not given back their husbands, orphans were not fathered.

And what recompense did France get for her scores of thousands slain, to say nothing of the maimed for life? A vast war debt, a loss of hundreds of thousands in destruction of property through all the country from Metz and Sedan to and in and around Paris, a loss of valuable territory, and the only gain was the fall of a tottering throne and the establishment of a republic instead of a vicious empire.

Who will pay for the incalculable, criminal, international war now being waged in Europe?

Any really intelligent person may make a fair guess as to what will happen if this side or that side wins: as to indemnities and new partitions of territory; but at the same time any person of ordinary common sense knows that war never can be paid for. No hollow obsequies can compensate for the mountains of slain. No purifying chemicals can substitute for the horrid odor of blood any perfume of victory or the dead flowers of defeat. No matter what the terms of so-called peace, the stench of the charnel house will be over it all.

Quick Action Saves United States in the War Crisis

By promptly adopting a program of action, the administration has enabled the United States to meet the unequalled commercial and financial strain imposed by the sudden blaze of war throughout Europe.

Demands of the present have been met and the inevitable needs of the future safeguarded. The administration's proposals have all been unanimously approved by Congress. These were the big steps taken.

Absolute neutrality declared. Offer to mediate transmitted to the five principal warring powers—Great Britain, France and Russia on the one hand, and Germany and Austria-Hungary on the other hand.

Appropriations of $2,750,000 secured to relieve the necessities of and provide transportation home for the thousands of Americans stranded in the warring countries.

Cruiser Tennessee dispatched with relief funds and gold coin to take care of the foreign obligations of American bankers.

Unlimited issue of emergency currency authorized, thus meeting the immediate demands for currency in this country's domestic transactions and stopping the outflow of gold to Europe.

Shipping laws so amended as to enable the United States to acquire vessels in which to transport the country's huge grain crop to needy and stricken peoples.

Provision made to use available naval vessels to carry mails and freight both to Europe and South America.

Settlement of the threatened strike of Middle West railway men effected, thus assuring railway service during the crisis.

President Wilson met the emergency with his usual cool, clear-thinking decisiveness.

Paragraphs

Hardships of War.

The announcement that the Canadian Pacific Railroad has decided to withhold all dividend payments from German and Austrian shareholders until peace has been declared is a curious illustration of the hardships imposed by war. Of course the railroad has no right to hold back dividends because of the nationality of certain holders, but it finds its justification in the fact that Germany and Austria have closed the borders to all outside communication and that no direct mail connection with them is possible. As the shares of this railroad are very largely held abroad many innocent persons are bound to suffer from this diminution of their incomes.—Philadelphia Record.

Cost of War.

England's war with the Transvaal was called a "little war," but when the war was over, the Chancellor of the Exchequer told Parliament that it had cost Great Britain $1,085,000,000. The fighting lasted two years and eight months; therefore one belligerent state spent on the average $1,000,000 a day. The daily cost to our government of the Spanish War during the time of active operations was almost exactly the same. After the war between Japan and Russia, it was reckoned that the two powers had spent fully $3,000,000 daily. Both Russia and Japan are comparatively poor, they had to raise most of the money for the war from other countries, and these nations had to provide, for a contest in which they had no immediate interest, not far from $1,000,000,000—all taken from their own productive finance and industry. As for the recent Balkan War, London economists have calculated that the five combatants, in the twenty-five weeks of fighting, actually spent at least $450,000,000.—Youth Companion.

The cost of the present European war is variously estimated. Jules Roche, French writer, says the cost is at least $6,000,000 a day, another European expert places the daily cost at $18,000,000, while some writers declare it will amount to forty or fifty million dollars a day. These figures show why all of the markets of the world were demoralized when Austria sent an ultimatum to Serbia on July 24.

Germany has 60 towns where women are employed as policemen.

THE COP.

I'd hate to be a peeler, and tread the pave of brick, the goat for every squealer who thinks he has a kick. He tries to do his duty nine cases out of ten; the burglar fierce and shifty, all sorts of strong arm men, the hobo and the killer, the bad man with a past, he'll chase from post to pillar, and run them in at last. His life he doesn't reckon upon tracking deadly foe, where ever perils beckon the peeler has to go. The cop must be a wizard, a Sherlock in disguise, and know, from A to Z, the wicked's lures and lies; and he must be a scraper, to master hoodlums rude; and yet he must be dapper and well groomed as a dude. The manners Chesterfieldian he must possess, of course, or we shall take his shield in, and tire him from the force. A Crichton he'll resemble in nothing he'll be lax, or surely he may tremble, for he will get the ax. As brave as any lion yet dovelike, mild and meek, as eloquent as Bryan—at fifteen bones a week! I'd hate to be a-copper, on foot that throb and ache, the goat of every yawper who has a kick to make.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Married men who sow wild reap oats grass widows.

Once in a while you run into an old-fashioned man whose house is mortgaged and who hasn't any automobile.

Some lads are always going around with a corkscrew and a pair of jacks looking for openings.

A Princess will take advice from a dude who wears cuffs on his pants. But she always knows that her father doesn't know what he is talking about.

Women are very hard to please when it comes to clothes. But they are not so particular about husbands.

A man never gets so poor that he isn't willing to share his poverty with a woman.

By the Way

The trouble with the expert who estimates the cost of war is that he figures it in dollars and cents.

Some women wear clothing, others carry scenic investiture.

Nature's mood generally is compensatory. The hairless dog is native to a country overrun with leas.

The fat man seldom is violent. Unrestrained and adipose tissue do not go hand in hand.

The men look once at a married woman and from three to five times at a grass widow.

Along about the time she is thirty the woman who was married at the age of twenty discovers, for the first time, that there are a number of men in the world.

Roh Wiley says it is the woman who has nothing to exhibit who objects to another woman's gown on the ground that it is indecent.

The rule is that when boys converse in low tones they are talking about something their mothers would not wish to hear.

Society

In one sense the ordinary reader appreciates the general news value of events chronicled in a paper, but its relative value is oftentimes lost sight of especially by those who send in accounts of happenings to be published.

This is true in other departments but especially so in society matters. The editor of this column must to a great extent depend upon those interested to furnish her with the data for, or send in write-ups of what is going on in the social world, and wishes to keep this department bright and new. Each one can aid by sending in or telephoning news. THIS DAY IT HAPPENS, or in case of an evening function the FOLLOWING DAY. It will then be NEWS and not merely HISTORY.

A company composed of the Woodside Ladies Aid society, together with relatives of the family, gathered at the home of Mrs. J. G. Sopher in Woods avenue on Thursday afternoon, August 20th. Mrs. Basshor, who was in constant attendance at her husband's bedside, collapsed under the strain and fears are entertained for her recovery. She is the divorced wife of Captain Isaac E. Emerson, and the mother of Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt.

Reports that Mr. Basshor shot himself with suicidal intent were denied by his physician and members of the Basshor household. Mrs. Basshor was visiting friends about eight miles distant when the shooting occurred.

THE DARK AND BLOODY GROUND.

Before the white man began to explore Kentucky, about the middle of the eighteenth century, the region was a vast hunting ground for many large tribes of the south, north and east, and between these tribes there was continuous conflict for the possession of the rich game privileges. Later on, when the white people settled in the territory, their struggle with the red man was more bitter and persistent than in almost any other section of the continent; hence the sanguinary name that was given to the territory, "The Dark and Bloody Ground."

The Reform He Advocated.

The editor of a British weekly journal, wishing to know what reforms well known men desired to see effected during the year, once applied to Sir W. S. Gilbert, among others. The author of "The Mikado" answered: "Dear Sir—A reform which I am particularly anxious to see carried into effect is that editors would cease to trouble busy people for gratuitous contributions."

Bankruptcy.

"Pa, what's bankruptcy?" a little boy once asked.

And pa, who had been "bit" that week, answered bitterly: "Bankruptcy, my son, is where you put your money in your hip pocket and let your creditors take your wallet and coat."

Whist.

An acquaintance of Talleyrand once remarked to him that he did not think it worth his while to learn the game of whist. Talleyrand's reply has been remembered until this day: "Not know whist, young man? What a dismal old age you are preparing for yourself!"

Analyzing a Raindrop.

Rain water as it leaves the clouds is pure. As it passes through the atmosphere it absorbs more or less carbonic acid gas and air, which it carries with it into the ground. As it seeps through the upper soil it will generally absorb still more carbonic acid gas from the decaying animal and vegetable matter almost always present. Should the water fall on insoluble rocks, such as granite or marble, it will remain fairly pure. But if it passes through a layer of limestone the carbonic acid gas which it carries will cause it to dissolve away this rock, and as a result bicarbonate of lime will be present in the water. Should it pass through a layer of sulphate of lime or gypsum, the water will contain a large amount of this material.

It is generally known that the bicarbonates of lime and magnesia when present in the water form a comparatively soft scale; the chlorides and nitrates are apt to cause corrosion, and the salts of soda and potash present, while not scale forming, are apt to cause foaming when sufficiently concentrated.—Power.

Sunlight and Fresh Air.

The word disinfectant has become a household term, and almost every one knows that it means something that destroys germs, though comparatively few know what our best and cheapest disinfectants are.

The most useful and efficient all round disinfectant that we have is the sun, and the air is his worthy ally. Fresh air dilutes germs as water dilutes filth, and the lustiest germ will quickly curl up its toes and die if exposed to the sunlight. But fresh air and sunlight are abundant and cheap, so of course we usually prefer to use some disinfectant that smells bad and can be bought at the drug store.

Open windows and rolled up shades would save many lives, but what do we have windows and shades for if not to keep them down? Besides, if we left them up it would let in the flies and fade the carpets, so we pamper the germs and employ the doctor.—Rural New Yorker.

The Thrifty Spirit.

It seems easier to be a deacon or elder nowadays than it was in our fathers' time. The portentous solemnity of countenance has gone out with the "blacks" that used to be essential for the duty of standing at "the plate." Only last Sunday, says a correspondent in the Glasgow News, I laid down my nite under the gaze of quite a sprightly deacon wearing a soft gray hat and a suit of light tweeds! When dandy stands at the plate a certain small boy finds it difficult to observe due decorum as he passes in to worship. In fact, he shows a desire to take his parent's hand and stand at the receipt of collection too. On Sunday, as I sat waiting for the service to begin, listening to the chink of the coin in the "plate" in the vestibule, I heard a young voice uplifted in argument with a fond mamma: "But, mummy, it's daddy! He'll let us in for nothing. Can't I keep my penny for another time?"

The Dark and Bloody Ground.

Before the white man began to explore Kentucky, about the middle of the eighteenth century, the region was a vast hunting ground for many large tribes of the south, north and east, and between these tribes there was continuous conflict for the possession of the rich game privileges. Clemens club accomplished a feat seldom recorded in baseball when he went 11 hitless innings against Battle Creek. Russell Robbins of the Saginaw club shut out Jackson without the semblance of a hit. Umpire Blake was choked into insensibility and severely beaten by a crowd at Bay City, which resented a decision at the plate in the game with South Bend.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back is sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, and we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand mother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we won't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

"The cash book as kept by Clerk Horton is in exact form as prescribed by the Bureau and is kept in a most commendable manner, the writing being excellent and the accounting accurate which shows a high efficiency in this line.

All the records required by the statutes are kept by Clerk Horton in a praiseworthy manner and his accommodating spirit and business ability in running the office is highly commended."

Ex-Clerk E. M. Larason is also commended in the report for his efficiency and business methods.

Extension of Time.
An allowance of five days' extension of time for the county board of complaints to finish its work, will prove a life saver for the board. The fixed time of fifteen days was up Saturday, and the board had just 108 complaint cases to investigate.

Notice of the extension of time for five days, was received Saturday, and members feel certain they will be able to complete their work by the new date.

Opening of Common Pleas.
Beginning one week from next Monday Judge Fulton will begin hearings in common pleas court of lost-over business from the present term, including divorce matters, motions, demurrers and, in fact, as many equity cases as possible. Two weeks of the new term will be devoted to business hanging over from the preceding term.

No jury cases will be placed on the calendar until Oct. 12, the court announced Saturday morning. This is on account of the grand jury session, the sitting here of the circuit court of appeals and the coming of fall week.

Judge Jewell will preside here during the beginning of the new term, following the cleaning up of this term's docket.

Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage pails, ponds and stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects cuts, bruises and sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 25c. at your Druggist.

It is sometimes quite a problem for the rounder to square himself.

OFFICIAL

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE HOUR OF POPE PIUS' DEATH GIVEN BY DOCTOR.

Death Certificate Reposes in Special Cover Richly Bound in Satin.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Rome, Aug. 22.—Dr. Marchiafava, one of the physicians who were at the death bed of Pope Pius X, has given the Associated Press the following statement:

"The Pope died Thursday, August 20, about 1:15 in the morning. (Signed) "MARCHIAFAVA."

When informed of the premature announcement in the United States of the Pontiff's death and the claim made that it actually occurred prior to the time officially announced, Dr. Marchiafava said he thought it ridiculous to doubt the exact hour at which the Pope had passed away, and describes the attempt to shorten his life by hours in view of the fact that there are plenty of witnesses who saw him alive early Thursday morning. These include such outside and disinterested persons and Mgr. Falconio, former apostolic delegate in the United States, whom at about midnight of Wednesday, insisted upon entering the Vatican, the doors of which were closed. He was given admittance and remained in the Pope's bedroom for half an hour. Dr. Amici, who was in attendance when shown the report, said:

"I can give you the best of documents showing the inevitable truth. With these words he produced his own written announcement of the death of the Pontiff to the Mayor of Rome. This announcement is as follows:

"Most Illustrious Sir, and Mayor:—It is my sorrow to inform you that today, August 20, at the hour of 1:15 a. m., His Holiness, Pope Pius X, known as Giuseppe Sarto of 1906, ceased to live in the Vatican Palace, from bronchial pneumonia, aged 79 years. Dated August 20, 1914."

Prince Colonna, the mayor of Rome, has ordered a special cover, richly bound and lined with satin for the death certificate. It bears the Roman coat of arms in the center and has the following inscription in silver letters:

"Death certificate of His Holiness, Pius X. Expired August 20, 1914."

Wigg: "Scrubber is an unsuccessful author." Wagg: "Yes, but he has the saving grace of humor. He calls his waste basket 'Posterior,' because he says that's what he's writing for."

Hardupper: "That Boston girl always reminds me of cash." Borrowwell: "How so?" Hardupper: "She's so cold and distant."

Wigwag: "I had a corking good time last night." Gussler: "How many corks did you disturb?"

RACING AUTOS DEFY DEATH AT ELGIN, ILLINOIS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 22.—Twenty-two racing automobiles, driven by the skilled drivers of the world, lined up today for the start of the second 301 mile grind of the two days of racing on the Elgin road course. The race was a free-for-all for the Elgin national trophy.

The number of withdrawals was surprisingly small. Practically the same drivers who raced the 301 mile event of yesterday were scheduled to start. Ralph Mulford, however, who finished third yesterday was compelled to withdraw. The frame of his machine was broken as he neared the finish of the race yesterday and repairs could not be made in time for the start. Speculation among the thousands of automobile enthusiasts at the course was rife as to the winner. Ralph Depalma, winner of yesterday's race was a favorite with many, while Spencer Wishart also was picked as a probable winner. He was forced out of yesterday's race after having led for 200 miles, when his automobile gasoline tank caught fire.

Barney Oldfield, fourth in yesterday's grind also was among the favorites as was Gil Anderson, who finished second. The cars were to be able to run two at a time at 11 o'clock.
